1. [REDACTED] was in to see me prior to his departure for [REDACTED]. He is most enthusiastic about his experience at the Industrial College of the Armed Forces and believes that this would be a worthwhile experience for any Support officer. He is of the impression also that there are vacant positions for civilians and that if we wanted to increase our quota we could do so.

2. Frank Ecker, Bureau of the Budget, telephoned to say that after further exploration of the matter the Bureau would agree that we reimburse in the amount of $50,000 to pay for [REDACTED]. Frank thought that this was wrong but agreed that if we were going to get [REDACTED] anytime soon we would have to pay and the Bureau would offer no further objection. ([REDACTED] and Ed Saunders have been advised.)

3. I talked with Bob Macy, Bureau of the Budget, and the Director about the Bureau's review of Project OXCART. Dick Bissell spoke with Andy Goodpaster of the White House and Bob Macy and made arrangements for [REDACTED] to look into this problem.
